

ZM30

AN INSTANTANEOUS SUCCESS

As Sung by

CLEMENT CRISPE (Baritone)
at all his Engagements

THE GREAT
"DIGGERS" APPEAL SONG

COPYRIGHT

Written & Composed by

JACK FEWSTER

Price 2/- Nett

By the same Composer as

"Sister of Pal o' Mine" "Since I've Lost the Sunshine of Your Smile" etc. etc.

F

Date 24.11.1919

BROTHER BILLJIM.

Written and Composed by JACK FEWSTER (Walter John Fewster)

Slowly and well marked

Voice

Moderato

He has fought Won't you think

Piano

for your moth — ers, He's fought for your homes, He's for a mo — ment what Bill — jim has done, Whilst

rall

fought fight for ing your sweet — hearts and so dear, me and for you,

Slower

Now he's tir - ed of bo - dy, He's wea - ry of the soul, Not Won't you think what he's suffered whilst fight - ing the Hun, Come cresc. brok - en of spir - it A thousand times No! Let us do what we can on then and help him, Come on ev - ery one, All we can let ev -

rall

him to cheer. Refrain Won't you give a hand to Brother Bill-jim?

ery one do.

mf.

Brother Billjim calls again for you, Is this gallant hero to go wanting? He who's fought for me and you, rall Wounded, mudstained, hungry, he's been lying, To the fight for right been true, He's the lad that kept our flag ap mf

fly - ing, Give a hand to Bill - jim do. Give a hand to Bill-jim do.

1st time 2nd time rall

rall

JACK FEWSTER'S
SONG SUCCESSES:

Twenty Thousand Dollars

Out Sunset Way

Just Over the Brow of the Hill

Since I've lost the Sunshine of your Smile

Sister of Pal o' Mine

God Sent You

Dolly Dimples

My Yesterday

&c., &c.

J. SWANSON & CO. LITHO

1919