Come on, Australians.

Along the heights of Turkey's shore
Our battle-cry was hurled;
It's echoes rang and rang again
Around the whole wide world;
On history's scroll we wrote our names
Upon Gallipoli;
That valiant charge, those cheering words
Will never, never die.

Chorus:

"Come on, Australians!"
"We're the boys to fight!"
"Come on, Australians!"
We're fighting for the right!
"Come on, Australians!"
Shout with all your might!"
"Come on, Australians!"

In ev'ry kind of art and sport
Australia leads the way;
We taught the Turkeys how to trot
As long as they would stay;
There'll be no "foul" proceeding when
The "goose" steps one for luck,
And when we face the Kaiser's stumps
We'll bowl him for a "duck."

Australia then will take her place
Among the nations free,
The land of hope, the land of joy,
The land of liberty;
We soon shall hear the welcome sound—
The cry of victory,
But till that day let come what may,
We'll shout on land and sea:—

Come on Australians.
